Lifechange Concepts, Incorporated, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Is a Deep, Intimate Marital Relationship Possible? Or is it Something Only Found in the Movies? What causes two people who love each other so deeply when they first meet to reach a point where they are, at best, just friends? Marriages start out with great hopes and dreams, but they are too often ending in divorce court, because they are not on the same page regarding their personal finances. In Love, Honor, and Finances. Building Oneness in Marriage, Ray blends personal experience, God's Word, and practical knowledge gained during his twenty plus year counseling career to guide couples through the challenges of personal finances so they can achieve oneness in their marital relationship. Whether your marriage has hit rock bottom, is flying high, or is just starting out, Love, Honor, and Finances will provide you with Bible-based financial wisdom and practical skills needed to experience greater intimacy with your spouse and with God. About the Author Ray Lynch is Founder and President of LifeChange Concepts, Inc., a non-profit ministry dedicated to teaching biblical stewardship through one-on-one counseling, seminars, and workshops. Ray has also authored the Budgeting for the Non-Accountant workbook. Since 1989, Ray has taught families God's Word on money and a simple money management system which has enabled many to live a more God-glorifying and debt-free life. In addition to financial counseling, his experience includes twelve years in corporate America with Exxon Corporation and twelve years managing his own business. Ray has a B.S. degree from the University of Delaware and a M.A. degree from Johns Hopkins University. Ray and his wife, Judy, have experienced numerous financial and personal trials during their...
