Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Faith Enters the Ring. The Right Hand of the Father tells the story of Anthony Russo, a regular guy living a normal life until one very unhappy day; the day tragedy struck. It describes how he unsuccessfully handles adversity and the road he takes that leads him to a place he never thought he'd be, the gutter. Feel the sadness Tony endures as he travels the road to ruin. Cringe as he magnifies the disaster by alienating his loving wife and devoted family. Read how a chance meeting becomes the vehicle that starts the wheels of faith rolling and propels Tony into the arms of an old and trusted friend. A priest who leads him back into reality, renewing his beliefs and helping him find his way back to the Lord. A God Tony claimed had forsaken him. Tony's friend, Father Tom, not only attempts to rescue Tony from the bottle but also from himself and by doing so unknowingly starts Tony on a journey no mortal could have even imagined. Father Tom truly believed that the Lord sent him to Tony for a reason. Why else, he thought, would this chance meeting occur where and when it did? The priest felt in his heart that God had a plan for Tony. What that plan was, he had no idea. He brought Tony to his Church, housed him in the recently vacated maintenance man's quarters, and helped him acquire a part time job working in a place near and dear to Tony's heart, a boxing gym. Who knew that would be the start of something so unimaginable that only God himself could conceive it? Tony's life became...
