So, however much there is about me and in me to provoke despair, when I look to Jesus and see God s thought of me, see what He means me to be, and what I mean to be, I cannot but rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Stewardship. Property is a divine trust. Things are tools, not prizes. Life is not for self-indulgence, but for self-devotion. When, instead of saying, The world owes me a living, men shall say, I owe the world a life, then the kingdom will come in power. We owe everything to God but our sins. Fatherland, pedigree, home-life, schooling, Christian training, --all are God s gifts. Every member of the body or faculty of mind is ours providentially. There is no accomplishment in our lives that is not rooted in opportunities and powers we had nothing to do with in achieving. What hast thou that thou didst not receive? If God gives us the possibilities and the power to get wealth, to acquire influence, to be forces in the world, what is the true conception of life but divine ownership and human administration? Of Thine own we render Thee. All there is of me is God s estate, and I am his tenant and agent. On the day of our birth a new lease...
