Not illustrated. 1891 Excerpt: .scientific societies by means of sub-division and co-operation in work. The origin of land animals from marine ancestors was touched on, and some examples given of sea-animals now living on our coasts, which are becoming accustomed to breathe in air. Finally the subject of bionomics, or the relation between animals and their environment was discussed, and cases given of protective and warning colouring, of mimicry, and of the characteristics of species having a definite utility and obvious connection with the habits or surroundings. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in examining the specimens under microscopes in the laboratory, and in the tanks and aquaria, under the superintendence of the Hon. Director and the Curator. Protective Colouring. This is a subject which has been referred to in several of these annual reports, and a number of new examples have been described from our former laboratory at...
