

Perfect: A Katie Novel

By Lindsay Anderson

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  After Dad, Cody, and I sat down with Chelsea and Claire, I asked Dad how it was possible that he was even here. He had explained to me that, back in March, Cody had written him a letter saying that he had wanted to make my first prom extra special. Cody had also told him that I missed him greatly, and that, if my Dad could, it would be amazing if he could surprise me at the prom. In the end, Dad had gotten the okay to come back just for my Prom night. When Cody had found this out, he had immediately told Mom and MCA's principal, Mrs. Jeter. Immediately, they both became on board with Cody's idea. Apparently, Mom had been so touched at Cody's sweet gesture that she started crying. After Dad and Cody had finished telling me of how this wonderful surprise came to be, I stood up from my seat and gave Dad a hug. Afterwards, I went over to Cody and did the same. Thank you, Cody....
