Excerpt from Report of Proceedings of the American Mining Congress: Fifteenth Annual Session Spokane, Washington, Nov; 25-29, 1912 The chairman: I want to thank the ladies and gentlemen for their reception Of the delegates expressed by your presence today. I wish to introduce the Very Reverend Charles Hicks, Dean Of All Saints Cathedral, who will Offer the invocation. Very reverend charles hicks. Let us pray. Almighty God, Maker Of Heaven and Earth, we thank Thee as the source Of all good things, the Giver Of every good and perfect gift; the Heavens are Thine and the Earth, and all that therein is. Thy hands fashioned the hills, and the gold and the silver and the precious things Of the earth all are Thine; and Thou didst make them and in Thy wisdom and power were they created. Accept our recognition Of Thy sovereignty; our grateful acknowledgment of all Thy mercies, and that Thou hast given to us more than is given to others. Help us, we beseech Thee, to render more to others in the way Of Christian service. Give us, we pray Thee, at this time not only a sense of Thy goodness but also a sense Of our responsibility and stewardship, and may such a consciousness Of our vocation come to us that mankind everywhere may be helped and blessed through our life and activities. Give us also in all our work and endeavors an appreciation Of the things Of the spirit, and may we never lose sight Of spiritual values or the one eternal reality, possessing which all other things are added unto us.
